"A monster hit ... " Daily Star

Britain is on the verge of anarchy! MI5 hero Harry Pearce and team leader Adam Carter suspect rogue members of the British 'Establishment' are sabotaging the very system they once sought to uphold. Expect nothing less than non-stop action on series five of this BAFTA-winning spy drama.

strictly come dancing

The hit television programme Strictly Come Dancing returns for a spectacular fourth series. Joining hosts Bruce Forsyth and Tess Daly, those bravely stepping up to the challenge are former Spice Girl Emma Bunton, What Not to Wear presenter Mica Paris, TV presenter Carol Smillie, former rugby star Matt Dawson and cricketer Mark Ramprakash.

gavin and stacey

Two worlds collide in this contemporary comedy about young love. After countless long-distance conversations, romance flourishes when Gavin and Stacey finally meet for the first time. But when Gavin and Stacey's ordinary worlds come together, their families and friends must learn to get along...

hotel babylon

"Slick and trendy drama"
Sunday Times Magazine

Glimpse beyond the glamour of a five-star hotel into the frenetic, non-stop world of its staff. An all-star cast returns for a second series of Hotel Babylon, the evocative drama inspired by Imogen Edwards-Jones' searing exposé of life behind the scenes of London's luxury hotel industry.

Graham Norton, the multi-award-winning comedy talk-show host, presents a brand new series celebrating the people, trends and stories closest to his heart. Cheeky and irreverent as ever, Norton trades quips with celebrity guests such as Elijah Wood, Kim Cattrall, Dustin Hoffman, Orlando Bloom, Rupert Everett, Joss Stone and Jon Bon Jovi to name a few.
